MB REAL ESTATE'S PATRICIA ALUISI AND KRYSTAL KURINSKY NAMED GLOBEST. WOMEN OF INFLUENCE

CHICAGO, July 10, 2019 – MB Real Estate (MBRE) announced today that COO & EVP Patricia Aluisi and SVP & General Manager Krystal Kurinsky were named GlobeSt. Women of Influence for their outstanding work and leadership. GlobeSt.'s Women of Influence celebrates women who drive the commercial real estate industry forward.

"MBRE has a noteworthy amount of female leadership, and that's not by accident," said Chairman & CEO Peter Ricker. "Patricia and Krystal bring perspective and guidance to the team that help make MBRE an effective leader in commercial real estate and a company that people want to work for."

Patricia was named as a GlobeSt. Mentor of the Year and is the driving force behind MBRE's company culture and investment in employee engagement.

"Our employees have an incredible advocate in Pat, who has broken with tradition to make sure our policies and culture are as equitable and supportive as possible," said VP & Director of Human Resources Cory Schauer. "In terms of leading our team, Pat has a very open-door policy and loops in every member for input on how we can make MBRE that much better for our staff. She learns from us as much as we learn from her."

General Manager of Class-A office building and MBRE HQ 181 West Madison, Krystal was named as a GlobeSt. Property/Facility Manager of the Year. Her client service philosophy serves as a model for the entirety of MBRE Asset Management and positions team members as an extension of ownership's staff.

"Krystal has gone above and beyond to make 181 West Madison a place where people look forward to coming every day," said SVP & Managing Director of MBRE Asset Management Suzanne Hendrick. "Our tenant events in particular are known throughout the real estate industry and have been replicated at other premier office buildings.”

GlobeSt.’s Women of Influence will be announced at their inaugural conference on July 10th in Broomfield, Colorado.
