MB REAL ESTATE NAMES PURCELL PRESIDENT -LEASING AND MANAGEMENT SERVICES

CHICAGO, JANUARY 25, 2017 – MB Real Estate (MBRE) announced today that Kevin Purcell has been named to serve as president of the Chicago-based real estate services firm’s Leasing and Management Services divisions.

“This is a strategic move for MBRE and a well-deserved role for Kevin,” stated Peter Ricker, chairman and CEO of the firm. “It establishes his responsibility for continued growth and success with a keen focus on agency leasing and management businesses. And importantly, it is reflective of his long history of valuable service and contribution to MB.”

“This role allows me to focus exclusively on what I’ve spent 20-plus years facilitating with MBRE – working with existing and prospective clients to solve problems and create value,” commented Purcell. “We have a nationwide platform exceeding 20 million square feet and I see tremendous growth opportunities, particularly with building owners and investors who want to know they’re getting the attention they need from senior leadership”
